"Soul Survivor" by Jolinda Pizzirani is a metaphysically-oriented story of a doctor who learns he is dying and decides to participate in an experiment to "prove" life after death. His intention is that if life after death is proven to exist, the way in which people live their physical lives might change dramatically. In this story, the lives of three different couples are touched --and changed for the better -- by this doctor and his experiences.

In this day and age of uncertainty and strife throughout the world, we all need to look to our inner selves as well as our individual religions for spiritual guidance and help. Readers of "Soul Survivor" will be enlightened as to the possibilities that exist, and how these particular characters are guided by their inner selves.

California to Colorado and Peru, from there and then to here and now, we are taken on an incredible odyssey of wonder and self-discovery. The two stories that overlap in "Gala's 12: An Interdimensional Journey" by Bob Gunn reflect the dual nature of reality and must be interpreted by the reader depending on their own experiences, beliefs, imagination, and level of awareness. "Gala's 12" is an interactive story. That is, the main characters interact with you, the reader, and you become at least indirectly involved. The title, "Gala's 12", refers to twelve proposals put forth from another dimension as an effort to reveal more of what's really going on in our universe. The narrative is not as straightforward as it may initially appear. Worlds and realities intermix, questions are raised, and answers sought. And yet "Gala's 12" is most definitely an incredible "story" in its own right. From the author's perspective, this is indeed a true story. Whatever your assessment of this book is, or becomes, the "Twelve Propositions," around which it all revolves are an essential guideline for both surviving and evolving in this new millennium.

As you read "A Parent's Guide to Raising Great Kids" by Dr. Ed Wimberly, you will no doubt notice that this book takes a somewhat different approach to parenting than many books that are on the market today. The primary purpose of this book is not to suggest ways we parents can persuade, coerce, bribe, or if all else fails – force, our kids to be what we want them to be. Certainly, we want our kids to learn to be respectful of others, responsible, polite, ambitious, helpful around the house, and much more. Of course it is the desire and duty of any dedicated parent to do their best to help develop a healthy self-esteem in their kids, and to encourage them to grow up to be adults who have a sane and reasonable view of what they have to offer.

However, as an author and therapist, Dr. Wimberly believes that it is only as we look more closely at ourselves-as parents to our kids-that we will be more able and well equipped to “design” the great, healthy, and responsible kids we want them to become. So what you will be encouraged to do here is to look at yourself and your role as parent to your kids. As you do, your self-assessment will likely help fine tune your actions and attitudes, and in turn, assist you in meeting the goal of raising great and healthy kids. The responsibility of raising great kids is an awesome task, but an exciting one, indeed!

"How the Caterpillar Got Its Wings" by Jana Garnett is a beautifully illustrated, full color, 8½ x 11" book with a story that has a literal and figurative message. The literal story of how caterpillars become butterflies serves as a tool to facilitate dialogue about feelings between parent/teacher and child/student. The figurative message is open to interpretation and may apply to many important life transitions or just change in general. The objectives encourage us to acknowledge the function and potency of our feelings. In acknowledging, naming, and expressing our feelings, we release them and maintain both intrapersonal and interpersonal health. In fact, we are transformed by these behaviors!

In addition to the colorful book with its important message, an audio CD is included which has the story and fun activities for the reader to listen to and participate with again and again.

Jana Garnett is a special education teacher in Santa Barbara, CA, where she works with children with developmental disabilities. Jana's area of emphasis is interpersonal skills.

"From A to Z: Feed Your Soul and Lose The Weight" by Leanna Burns. This book is about bringing the physical and the metaphysical together. To feed each one the nourishment it needs so neither is neglected. The physical is your body, which in this case may have been overfed and under exercised, which certainly qualifies as neglect. The metaphysical is your soul. If you never recognize it, then you have been underfeeding it and neglecting it. The purpose of this book is to feed both the proper nourishment in the proper amounts. The concept is a simple one. In fact all of the concepts or lessons in this book are simple. It's only in the process of getting your soul in a healthy state that your body will also arrive at a healthy state. You may be wondering if this is a convenient time for you to take a journey to a healthy lifestyle. Give thanks to your soul and the universe at this very moment. It is because of them that you are here, reading this book. You have arrived at this point because you are ready to embrace a healthy lifestyle.

"Psychic Princess: Admirable Avocation" by Jolinda Pizzirani is the first in a series about a young woman with psychic abilities who unwillingly gets involved in solving various crimes. In this first volume, Daniella Luisa Celestina Speranza, or "Danni" as her friends call her, was content living with her menagerie of cats, dogs and a turtle while working on her sculptures and nurturing her creative side. She didn't mention to people that she was psychic, having learned the hard way that most would only think she was crazy. But one person she confided in was her good friend, Peggy, who convinces her to use her capabilities to help find a rich couple's daughter that is missing without a clue. Danni reluctantly agrees to try her best, unsure if she will help -- or hinder -- the investigation. Who knows how her powers will affect her life and the lives of others?

"The Secret of the Lighthouse" by Rick Farren (a sequel to "Grandpa and the Pirate") is the tale of 11-year-old Dickey Denton and the secret he uncovers at Rocky Neck Lighthouse. From his Grandpa, Dickey learns the story of a brave and mysterious young woman whose spirit inhabits the lighthouse and the meaning of the bright light in the window. Grandpa produces the woman's journals that relate her fascinating adventures as she traveled the world, and about the man she married who changed her life. Inspired by these stories, Dickey and his friend decide to investigate the lighthouse to see if her spirit really does exist. They eventually muster up their courage, only to be frightened beyond belief by their discovery. Dickey eventually learns the startling truth from his parents regarding the impact the young woman had on their family.

"Life Begins@Sixty" by Joan Frentz. "The strength of this book lies in relating to the kind of deep-down feelings and challenges we women face every day: taking up the treadmill yet another time or eating a decadent hunk of chocolate because there was no hope. It was comforting to know that I am not alone. "Life Begins@Sixty" is not just for women over sixty. It's for every woman who has bought new clothes because the old didn't fit any longer. It's for every woman who has been on every single diet on earth. It's for every woman who knows she has to get out there and start living better but just hasn't been able to."

"The Nature of Woman" by Deborah Lee Davis. This beautiful hardcover book of photography gives visual and poetic tribute to the spirit and earthiness of womankind. The author's choice of the deep and stirring subject matter, her keen eye for the subtleties of spirit revealing itself in every day moments, conveys her profound love and appreciation of humankind. Her selection of photos emerging from this appreciation of human beings and their plight is informed as well by the author's great respect for nature, animals, the mountains and the elements. This book celebrates woman, and womankind in general, in its beautiful choice of faces, stories, poetry and images. These photographs will speak for themselves, as they touch the reader in long forgotten places.

Leanna Burns, the author of "From A-Z: Feed Your Soul and Lose the Weight" is once again suggesting to readers to "let it go!" Of course in that book it was about feeding one's soul and letting go of the weight. In "Soul Beautiful, Naturally" the author follows a similar path. This book encourages every woman to embrace her soul beauty and to let go of society's mythical standard of physical beauty. A woman who lives in soul beauty is a woman who lives in love. This potent combination of beauty and love has the power to heal and positively affect every living thing.

If you and your children enjoyed reading about Hoover's adventures on Cape Cod two years ago ("Hoover's Summer Tale"), you will certainly enjoy reading about all of the comical adventures that "Hoover's Funny Little Kids" had this past year. They are quite the little characters to watch. There is never a dull moment when they are scurrying about.

"Hoover's Funny little Kids" is a continuation of Hoover's visits to the lovely backyard garden where he grew up. It's another terrific bedtime story that will make you proud you live on Cape Cod. We hope our visitors will enjoy their vacation in our quaint town.

This book relates how James C. Boyce fell in love with the fiddle, learned to play it, and began to teach others to play it. Mr. Boyce is an instrument maker and repairman who gives his personal advice on the purchase and care of a fiddle, and includes his observations on the mystique of the instrument.

"Falling in Love With the Fiddle" is designed for people who never learned to read music, and also for those who do read music but want to get "off the page" and play music by ear.

This book contains an aural learning program for the beginning fiddler, teaching how to hold the fiddle and bow, and to play the sounds that you hear. The AudioTab CD will help you learn how to tune the fiddle, and how to play three simple tunes on it. Ultimately, the book and CD will help you learn to play the "sounds" of the fiddle.

Leanna Burns, who writes about the soul and the "letting go" process, is at it again. Only this time, it is not about letting go of the weight ("From A to Z: Feed Your Soul and Lose the Weight"), nor is it about letting go of society's mythical standard of physical beauty ("Soul Beautiful, Naturally). "Living the Soul Dolce Vita" is about letting go of your "stuff" -- the stuff that gets in the way of soul communication, acknowledgment and recognition. This book is not just about having a garage sale and releasing a few household items that no longer interest you. It is about getting interested in your soul, and making room for it in your crowded and busy life. When your soul defines who you are versus the trappings of your life doing so, then you will be truly "Living the Soul Dolce Vita."

Just as we have physical excess baggage, we also carry extra emotional baggage. The goal of this Workbook is to assist you in letting go of your emotional baggage. Many times our physical weight is related to our emotional state of being. For example, a person who is frustrated and angry will eat to relieve stress, thus adding more weight to the physical body. There is no reason to carry around all that extra emotional baggage. We get stuck in our day-to-day lives, accepting the "way it is" without ever questioning "what am I doing?" or asking ourselves "is this how I want to be?"

You will learn how to open up your emotions and, with the assistance of God, release and let them go. This process allows you to be the person you were intended to be, and hopefully, to live a life full of peace, happiness and joy.

Leanna Burns, author of "From A to Z: Feed Your Soul and Lose the Weight," "Soul Beautiful, Naturally," and "Living the Soul Dolce Vita," now brings us this unique guide to making your soul wishes come true. We arrive on this planet as soul wishers, yet over time we may stop making soul wishes for one reason or another. And this is not a good thing, since soul wishes are so full of good and benefit all of us on our journey. Naturally, what benefits each and every one of us benefits this planet we live on. This would have to be the number one reason for making soul wishes in that they help to make the world a better place.

Leanna Burns considers soul wishes to be an integral part of every soul's journey here on earth. And as such they are the way in which a soul learns and grows and progresses forward. The assistance of soul wishes from other souls intermingled with our own individual soul wishes bring this process about. Soul wishes help to lead each soul to its destiny. It's simply a matter of believing.

Jolinda Pizzirani, author of "Soul Survivor," "Inspirations," and "Psychic Princess," now brings us this unique collection of messages directly from the angels for all of us to ponder. Every physical entity can hear angel words, but as a prerequisite they must be open to receiving these messages and of a nature to handle and share them properly. Therefore, Jolinda is merely the transcriptionist in this endeavor, and it is hoped that the material provided within "angel words" will begin to satisfy the hunger you have within you for the many unknown factors abundant in Heaven and on Earth.

"angel words" presents a discussion of subjects suggested by the angels themselves, and in addition answers questions submitted by interested individuals living on Earth today. Future editions of "angel words" will embrace the questions put forth by the readers of this first book, and we will continue until all uncertainties have been calmed. Perhaps, as we travel this journey together, we may begin to more successfully navigate the path that lies ahead.
